

Naznazim

Premiered 29 August at the Jewish culture week, Jewish centre Oranienburger synagogue Berlin, at the opening of the exhibition "One room of memories".

duration: variable

Naznazim is about expectation. Reading any text about the performance before the performance itself might deprive from the experience during the performance, therefore if you are interested in Press material please send your request per email to dovatmeron@gmail.com